The classroom will be given a reminder and possible referral.

ANYONE returning to class with more than the fair amount of time after being released to

Students will use the same route taken to exit the classroom to return to class.

Students will return to the classroom when the RELEASE bell is sounded.

Students will remain in their group at all times.

Students will walk away from the building and meet at the sidewalk on the Sanders Side of the school.

Students will make their way to the outside to the immediate left into the North Parking Lot.

Students will enter the building and exit through the double doors into the B-building hallway.

The student at the front of the line will guide the students to the stairs down to the first floor of Main Building and exit through the double doors into the B-building hallway.

anything with them (girls' purses are ok).

Students will stop all activity and begin lining up at the door. Students will not carry

The following steps will be followed when a fire bell is sounded:

---

EXIT